MOORE ASKED FOR ADVICE ON MEXICO

Administration Reported as Worried Over Attitude of Germany

GEN. BLISS REPORTS ON THE VERGARA MATTER

Says Body Delivered by Mexicans—Huerta Orders Aggressive Campaign

BY JOHN EDWIN NEVIN.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Mexico was a topic of grave discussion in the cabinet today. It was admitted that John Bassett Moore, who recently resigned the ambassadorship of the State Department, was recalled for consultation on account of serious complications and because of his expert knowledge of international law. No pretense is made of denying that the administration is anxious concerning the reports that Germany is restive over prolonged Mexican disorders.

From competent sources it is learned that neither federal nor state governments knew of the expedition or Vergara's body until after it had occurred. Consul Garrett at Nuevo Laredo today gave satisfactory assurance that he was not concerned in the affair.

When the meeting broke up it was the impression that Senator Stone, who will succeed Bacon as the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, will answer in the Senate Senator Fall's demand for federal action in Mexico made yesterday before the Senate.

GEN. BLISS REPORTS ON VERGARA AFFAIR

General Bliss in his official report of the Vergara affair confirmed the story that Mexicans hired by S. T. Hill, Vergara's brother-in-law, exhumed the body of Vergara and brought it to the international border for $400. General Bliss said the reports that Vergara's body indicated that he had been tortured before he was executed were baseless, as there were no burns on the corpse as stated. It was evident that he had been hanged and then shot. Four bullets struck him.

GOV. COLQUITT TO DEFEND ACTION OF TEXAS RANGERS

AUSTIN, Texas, March 10.—Governor Colquitt is en route to Fort Worth today. Before leaving here he declared his intention of defending the Texas Rangers for their part in the Vergara case if he received a request from Washington for an official report.

HUERTA GIVES ORDERS FOR AN AGGRESSIVE CAMPAIGN

MEXICO CITY, March 10.—Provisional President Huerta has ordered an aggressive federal campaign against the rebels. He issued a statement today saying the federalists had been passive too long. He warned his generals that he will visit his wrath on their heads unless they immediately assume the aggressive.

Two hundred federal troops reached here last night after having fled into American territory after a disastrous battle on the outskirts of Torreon. They told a story that they had been captured by American troops but had finally been released upon payment of small bribes.

Word has been received from the vicinity of Torreon that the rebels had dynamited two federal troop trains en route to Torreon, with small loss to passengers.

7 BANDITS ROB BANK IN ABBOTSFORD, B. C.

SUMAS, Wash., March 10.—Seven masked men held up and robbed a bank at Abbotsford, B. C., this morning, securing $2000 in cash. Four of the men guarded the outside while three entered the bank, covered the employees and seized the coin. They then ran to the outskirts of the town where they are believed to have had an automobile waiting. Two posses are out on both sides of the international border.

One bandit covered the clerk, another thrust his gun in the cashier's face, and a third walked into the teller's cage where the money had just been brought from the vault, and seized the loot. The three men walked leisurely outside, joined the others and walked away. They broke into a run when the clerks rushed from the bank, shouting the alarm.

British Foreign Minister Supports American Policy

Sir Edward Grey, foreign affairs minister of the British empire, has come out flatfootedly in support of the American policy in Mexico in regard to the death of William S. Benton, a British subject, shot at the order of Villa, the ex-bandit. He took the first occasion in parliament to announce that the government would await action by the United States. In the mean time the British consul has begun an investigation of the circumstances of the death, and he will report to his home office. The foreign minister has no hope, however, of gathering more facts than will be learned by American investigators because of his lack of authority to compel witnesses to testify. The significance of the pronouncement of Sir Edward Grey lay in the fact of his quick recognition that the Monroe Doctrine covered the situation.

JAP IS ROBBED ON HOSPITAL LAWN

H. Watanabe Gets Blow on Temple from Thug in Exchange for Match

HOLD-UP MAN CARRIES BRICK IN PAPER BAG

Little Brown Man from Flowery Kingdom Loses $30 and Timepiece

H. Watanabe, a Japanese who lives at Talbert, was held up and robbed last night at 8:15 on the lawn of the Santa Ana Hospital. He was crossing the lawn on his way to the hospital entrance when he was stopped by a man who asked him for a match. Either before or immediately after producing the match Watanabe was struck on the left temple with a brick which the thug carried in a paper sack. The blow stunned Watanabe and he fell. The hold-up man, who carried a nickel-plated watch and chain and $30 in currency and silver. A moment after the highwayman made off down a side street to the northeast of the hospital Watanabe got on his feet and gave chase, yelling lustily.

Officers Murray, Ryan and Lacy were summoned but could get no trace of the robber. A search of the lawn where the hold-up occurred revealed several pieces of small silver which the thug had overlooked in his hurry, and the brick with which the crime had been committed. It is thought that the thug carried the brick in a paper bag in order not to excite suspicion.

The hold-up took place so quickly that Watanabe was unable to give any description of his assailant other than he was considerably taller than himself.

Watanabe has been at the hospital a great deal recently as his wife is ill at that place. He was on his way to visit her when the crime was committed.

LOWER EXPRESS RATES BEGIN SUNDAY

Revised Schedule Will Affect Millions Worth of Business in California

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—The revised rates of the Wells Fargo Express Company, to be in effect next Sunday and will affect millions of dollars worth of business in California.

The new rates are materially lower than those now in effect, the cut in some instances being more than 50 per cent.

The industry most affected is the dairy business, the value of the output of which in 1913 was $32,000,000. There are 15,000 dairies and 200 creameries in the state, all of which will benefit under the new rates. The butter output last year totaled 55,542,709 pounds.

As examples of the reduction in express rates on milk and cream—the old rate for a ten gallon can, weight 100 pounds, from El Centro to Los Angeles, is $1.25—the new rate will be 54 cents, a reduction of .71 cents.

Asquith's plan called for a vote every sixth year.

CHOPS $200,000 MASTERPIECE WITH AXE

Velasquez' Venus in London Art Gallery is Irreparably Marred in Attack

ACT WAS RETALIATION FOR PANKHURST ARREST

Suffragette Leader Arrested Amid Furious Battle During Glasgow Address

LONDON, March 10.—In retaliation for Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst's arrest yesterday at Glasgow, Miss Mary Richardson took six chops with a meat axe at the $200,000 painting of Venus by Velasquez, at the National Art Gallery. She was arrested and the gallery was closed. Experts called to examine the picture said possibly they could patch it, but that much of its beauty is irreparably lost.

Miss Richardson, when arrested, told the police: "I tried to destroy the picture of the most beautiful woman of mythology as a protest against the destruction of Mrs. Pankhurst, the most beautiful character of modern history."

Riot Followed Arrest

Mrs. Pankhurst's arrest took place at Glasgow amid a furious battle while making an address to a suffragette meeting. This is the seventh time that Mrs. Pankhurst has been arrested under the "cat and mouse" act on the conspiracy charge for which she received a sentence of three years at penal servitude. She has actually served only three weeks of this sentence. A wild riot followed the arrest, in which revolvers were fired, but they apparently contained blank cartridges, and miniature bombs were thrown. Many persons were injured in the fighting.

Scotland Yard detectives, who were sent to carry out the arrest, say it was the wildest fight yet between the police and the suffragettes.

She admitted that she was arrested ten times last year, remarking that the "Cat and Mouse" act was the comic valentine of the criminal code. She was held without bail. Secretary Dawes Turner of the National Galleries said that the Velasquez picture has been damaged to the extent of $125,000.

REVOLUTION IN BRAZILIAN STATE

State of Caera Under Martial Law—Fight Momentarily Expected at Capital

RIO DE JANEIRO, March 10.—Martial law was in effect today throughout the state of Caera, Fortaleza, the capital, being under guard of the regulars. The homes of the governor, all officials and legislators were guarded. These conditions resulted from a strike, causing a spread of discontent throughout the state. The rebels are encamped close to the city and an attack is momentarily feared. Chaotic conditions prevail in other sections of Brazil.

BUENOS AYRES HEARS OF NEAR ANARCHY CONDITIONS

BUENOS AYRES, March 10.—Reports that near anarchy prevails in the Brazilian state of Caera were received here today. News from all Brazilian points is censored. The fact that news of a fight was permitted to leak is causing the belief here that the trouble is great. Brazilian trade in general is dropping off on account of revolutionary outbreaks.

HE WAS LAZY ALL RIGHT

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Representative Willis of Ohio, who has the biggest voice in captivity, is relating his experience on a stumping tour during the last campaign. Willis dislikes automobiles and so hired a buggy to go around his district in. The driver was renowned for his laziness and pure gall. On one occasion he hitched up a raw broncho from the West to the buggy shafts and let the unsuspecting Willis in. The horse took the bit in his teeth and lit out. The going was mighty rough. Willis looked at the driver and suggested that it might be well to jump.

"Aw, no," retorted the lazy one, "don't jump. He'll throw us out in a minute anyway."

CLEMENTE VERGARA, TEXAS RANCHMAN, SHOT TO DEATH BY FEDERAL TROOPS IN MEXICO

Clemente Vergara, a Texas rancher and cattle raiser, was shot to death by federal troops in Mexico commanded by Captain Rodriguez, a well-known officer of the army of Dictator Huerta operating in the north. Rodriguez had eaten dinner with him one evening and had asked him to go to an island in the Rio Grande to discuss the theft of horses which troops had taken from Vergara's ranch. No sooner had he reached the spot than he was attacked and carried off to Mexico. Later he was shot. The State Department is now making an investigation, along with its inquiry into the case of William S. Benton, the British subject who was shot by Villa's troops.

Plenty of guides will be on hand to answer all inquiries and to show the stranger about. School is in session from 8:40 until 3:20, with forty minutes intermission for lunch. Those who desire can get meals at the school cafeteria at the same rates that students pay. Such a railroad is badly needed by the settlers on the government irrigation project near Yuma.

MORE BANQUETING FOR THE WHITE SOX

WHAT we (The Progressives) have done is to set America thinking of altruism in politics, to considering justice before prosperity, and to change definitely the trend of American political thought from an egotistic philosophy to an altruistic philosophy.

ESCAPED WITH STOLEN HORSES AND BUGGIES

Citizens Took Hand in Fight—Robbers Believed Members of Unemployed Army

LOOMIS, Calif.—Thirty men believed to be members of the now scattering army of the unemployed, raided this town at 2 o'clock this morning. They smashed in the doors of the postoffice, dynamited the safe and stole $700 in cash and stamps. Postmaster S. W. Turner followed the men and engaged in a gun fight with the robbers. Two of them fell, but their companions carried them away. It is not known how seriously the men were hurt. A score of citizens armed themselves and followed the men who, however, escaped with stolen horses and buggies. A running fight followed. It is not known whether any of the bandits were injured. None of the citizens was hurt in the fight.

BILLS TO AMEND SHERMAN LAW

Finishing Touches Completed Two of Bills Important in Their Scope

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The finishing touches were put to the Trade Commission Bill today by the House Commerce Committee, and Chairman Adamson is expected to give out the text of the bill tonight. The bill is expected to provide three commissioners at $10,000 annually with jurisdiction over large corporations and discretionary authority over smaller ones. The inquisitorial powers of the commission will be limited.

TENTATIVE BILLS TO AMEND SHERMAN LAW

The House Judiciary Committee spent the day re-drafting three tentative bills to amend the Sherman Antitrust Law. The bill defining trade monopolies and restraints may be dropped as President Wilson favors a modification of the rigorous prohibition of interlocking directorates. The holding companies bill will be designed to affect only those which by a "community of interest" result in actual and potential restraint of trade. President Wilson has approved the Trades Relations Bill prohibiting price-fixing and exclusive sales practice.

UNEMPLOYED ARE EFFECTUALLY PENNED IN

Unemployed Besieged by Flood Waters and Police on Yolo Side of River

SACRAMENTO, March 10.—Penned in on three sides by the overflow of flood water and on the fourth side by 300 armed civilians and officers, several fire engines and hundreds of feet of hose, the army of the unemployed is besieged on the Yolo county side of the Sacramento river. A committee of Yolo county officials and citizens with District Attorney Wachter today conferred with Governor Johnson, the latter reaffirming that he will not call out the militia unless property is destroyed or lives menaced, although he is holding several hundred guardsmen ready. Sacramento city and county authorities have refused to remove the guard at the river. The unemployed are subsisting on scant rations sent from here.

The Kelley and the Thorne factions are united under John McDonald, R. J. Blaine and James Beck, who were chosen leaders by vote. Several of the army are suffering from wounds from yesterday's fights.

MOST OF UNEMPLOYED ON YOLO SIDE OF RIVER

SACRAMENTO, March 10.—The remnants of the army of unemployed men, camping on the sand lot across the river where they were provided with blankets and food by local people, breakfasted this morning on the remnants of the bread and coffee sent here last night from Sacramento. They appeared in good spirits today, but none of the men seemed to know any plan for future action. The former leaders are all in jail and no others have yet appeared. Police officers are guarding the Sacramento side of the river to prevent the return of the men who fled into Yolo county yesterday. The police are also organizing to prevent expected raids for food. All Sacramento saloons were closed at 7 o'clock last night, fearing that the men would return to the city or that their sympathizers here would start trouble. The night passed quietly.

The only band of men intact last night was a disorganized force across the river in Yolo county, estimated as numbering from 500 to 700 men.

SHERIFF APPEALED TO FOR AID BY YOLO COUNTY

WOODLAND, Cal., March 10.—Residents of Broderick and other towns along the Sacramento river, opposite Sacramento, have appealed to Sheriff Monroe for aid in handling the problem resulting from the unloading of several hundred unemployed men by Sacramento city and county authorities. It was announced at the sheriff's office that a force probably would be recruited at once and sent to meet the invaders to keep them in order while they are in Yolo county.

AIRSHIP FLIGHTS OVER SEA NEAR, SAYS BELL

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Trans-Atlantic aeroplane flights with present-day flying machines are a possibility of the near future, in the opinion of Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone. A system of gears for increasing the speed of propellers in the decreased resistance of higher altitudes, he said, probably would solve the problem.

THE CONGRESSIONAL RECORD WAS BLAMED FOR HIS ORATION

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Representative Townsend of New Jersey, better known to fame as "Chimney Fadden" for his stories of that gamine, can't convince his New Jersey friends that he didn't put one over on them a few weeks ago. It seems that Townsend was invited to Newark to a banquet, and asked to say a few appropriate remarks. The congressman was so busy down here that he didn't have time to prepare a speech until he caught the train for Newark. Then he sat himself down and scribbled off notes on scraps of paper. Arriving at Newark, Townsend was urged by a newspaper reporter for an "advance" on his speech. Townsend said he only had the original copy. The scribe saw pencil besmeared pages and offered to have the stuff set in type and a proof furnished the representative before the banquet, so he could read it easier. Townsend agreed. He got the proof just as he sat down in the banquet hall. When called upon to speak, "Chimney Fadden" arose, made his little bow, and reached in for his proof. When he had finished a captious individual who had observed that the speech was in type got up and remarked: "I watched the gentleman carefully. You've been imposed on. He didn't read from manuscript. He read from the Congressional Record." Townsend hasn't been able yet to convince those who are not acquainted with the speed which "copy" is handled on a newspaper, that he didn't prepare the speech until he got aboard the train for Newark.

WILL TEACH COOKING BY CORRESPONDENCE

BERKELEY, Cal., March 10.—"What shall we have for dinner?" Housewives of California will have this question answered by the University of California. Miss Marguerite Cooley, trained professionally at Columbia, is to take full charge of a correspondence course in domestic science which will deal with the selection and use of the food in the home. Among other things the classification, composition and nutritive value of food materials will be taught, with consideration of the cost of various foods, so that menus may be prepared in which the different nutritive elements needed may be represented and yet economy be observed. The kitchen and the cook stove will be the laboratory equipment required for the correspondence course in the "Principles of Cooking." In this case will be taught the relation of different methods of cooking to the appetizingness and the digestibility of foods. "Feeding the Family" will be the subject of a third correspondence course. In this students will be taught how children should be fed.

PITTSBURG TO HELP THE "DOWN AND OUTS"

PITTSBURG, March 10.—Preachers, bankers, educators and sociologists prominent in this city today are backing a movement to care for the "down-and-out" which will place this city on a par in its facilities to help the unfortunate with Chicago, Boston, St. Louis and other large cities. The plan as outlined contemplates an institute at Market street and Third avenue with George Trotter of Chicago, brother of "Mel" Trotter of Grand Rapids, as superintendent. The old fair building is now situated on that corner and purchase of the structure is called for by the plan. Either remodeling of that into a modern settlement building or the construction of a new building would follow. The Union Mission would be abandoned and merged with the new mission, which will be controlled by the Pittsburgh Presbytery. Food and lodging will be afforded those who can pay at small cost, while for those completely "strapped" comfortable quarters, food and employment in workshops connected with the institution will be given. One large room will be set aside for religious services and a social center. Only the amplification and carrying out of the plan remain to be worked out.

AN "AVERAGE FRENCH FAMILY"

PARIS, March 10.—Commenting on the declining birth rate in France, a writer in the Matin declares that the average French family now consists of a dog, a piano and a child. "Mon-sieur plays with the dog, Madame plays the piano, and the child is left to either the grandmother, the aunt or the servant," says the writer, who contends that with only sons marrying only daughters the enormous proportion of one child families will be considerably increased during the next generation.

TAFT WILL NOT RESIGN FROM YALE JOB

Voices Denial of Plan to Quit Professorship for Place on Supreme Bench

NEW YORK, March 10.—A denial of the report that he intends to resign his Yale law professorship for a seat on the United States supreme bench was voiced today by former President Taft. His denial followed the story current yesterday, and reported to have come from authoritative sources, that Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, of Massachusetts, is to resign at the termination of the time required for the assumption of cases under Justice Holmes' special consideration, thus affording a place for Mr. Taft on the supreme bench. It was further stated that President Wilson had sounded Mr. Taft on the matter, and that the latter was not only willing but eager to accept the appointment within a year, and that he had already made tentative arrangements for severing his connection with Yale and for again taking up his residence in Washington.

DON'T GROW BALD

It's Quite Needless. Nourish the Hair Roots—Remove Dandruff—Use Parisian Sage

If your hair is getting thin, losing color, or has that matted, lifeless and scraggy appearance, the reason is evident—dandruff and failure to keep the hair roots properly nourished.

Parisian Sage applied frequently for a week and then occasionally is all that is needed. It removes dandruff with one application; almost immediately stops falling hair and itching head; cleanses, cools and invigorates the scalp and makes dull, stringy hair soft, abundant and radiant with life. Equally good for men, women or children—everyone needs it.

This refreshing hair tonic can be had at any drug or toilet counter in 50 cent bottles only. Rowley Drug Co. always sells it with agreement to refund the money if you are not satisfied.

Get a bottle at once. Delighted users say Parisian Sage is the best and most invigorating hair tonic made.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—W. W. Naughton, sporting editor of the Examiner, died today of heart failure.

CORONADO TENT CITY IS BEING MUCH IMPROVED

SAN DIEGO, March 10.—Great changes are being made at Coronado Tent City. A ten-foot-wide cement bulkhead is being put in all along the ocean side, the whole length of the tent city on which will be a sidewalk. T. P. Getz, the well-known amusement man, is putting in attractions like those at Venice and all the private homes have been purchased and refitted as part of Tent City. Last year the wonderland at Ocean Beach was so great a counter attraction with its chutes, merry-go-round, menagerie and similar attractions removed from Los Angeles that Coronado Tent City suffered enormously and last fall it was decided to make Tent City come up to date.

LEADS WORLD IN PRODUCTS OF STEEL

Sec'y Redfield Says Exports of U. S. Reach Vast Sum of $2,400,000,000 Yearly

NEW YORK, March 10.—"We are now exporting our manufactures at the rate of $5,000,000 each working day, with a yearly total for all products of more than $2,400,000,000."

"We have become the largest producer of steel in the world."

"We make more pig iron by a million tons annually than England and Germany put together."

"The deposits in the savings banks of Massachusetts and Connecticut would more than pay off our entire national debt; while those of New York state alone would do the same thing the second time and have $600,000 to spare."

These are a few of the many astonishing statements made by William C. Redfield, Secretary of Commerce, last night in an address at the Academy of Music to the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences on the "Development of American Commerce."

TO RIVERSIDE BY BREA ONLY

The Santa Ana Canyon Road Closed for the Good Roads Building

All automobilists, take notice. The road in the Santa Ana canyon is closed, and if you want to go to Riverside you will have to go by way of Brea canyon and Pomona.

The county has let a contract to Contractors Sharp & Fellows for building two and a half miles of road in the Santa Ana canyon. The canyon road can be used as far up as the southwest end of this contract, Davidson's contract being the two and a half miles this side of the Riverside county line.

Owing to the mountainous character of the country it is not possible to build temporary roads around the work that is to be done. Assistant Engineer Stearns of the highway commission stated this morning that there is nothing to do but close the road to the public. Since there is but one road up the Santa Ana canyon, all vehicle traffic will be shut off over the two and a half miles covered by the contract. It will be several weeks before the road can be opened. The plans call for the reduction of grades and straightening out of this road. It is not to be paved.

ENGLAND DEMANDS FANCY POULTRY IN AMERICAN STYLE

NEW YORK, March 10.—England demands a certain amount of fancy frozen frying chickens dressed and packed in American style. Last week 750,000 pounds, valued at $135,000, were shipped to Liverpool from western packers. This poultry is all milk-fed and is packed in the most approved style.

Nowhere is poultry packed as in America. Russia and the Chinese packers have tried to imitate the American style, but they put in small roosters and old fowls and this has turned the fancy trade of England to America.

Forty cars were required to haul this shipment from the western packing plant.

GRAND JURY MAY PROBE 7 DEATHS BY NEO SALVARSAN

LOS ANGELES, March 10.—Coroner Hartwell recommended a grand jury investigation of the deaths of seven patients at the County Hospital following the neo salvarsan treatments. The recommendation followed the report of the autopsy on the men who died as the result of the treatment.

The autopsy was in charge of Dr. Stanley Black of Pasadena, who reported the case as one where "the membrane of the spinal cord was somewhat congested but there was no excess of fluid or signs of pyogenic infection. The spinal cord itself showed marked softening in the posterior columns. The surface of the blood vessels was markedly distended. From the autopsy findings and clinical history elicited we must conclude that death was caused by irritant poison as the result of intraspinal injection of neo salvarsan."

OLSSON KEEPS HIS CITIZENSHIP ONCE TAKEN FROM HIM

SEATTLE, March 10.—The case of the government against Leonard Olsson of Tacoma, to deprive him of his citizenship, was dismissed by Judge Cushman upon the motion of District Attorney Clay Allen on the day set for its trial.

Olsson's papers were taken away from him by former United States Judge Hanford, but a rehearing of the case was ordered from Washington. Socialists of the Pacific Northwest alleged that Hanford had relieved Olsson of his citizenship duties because he had professed a belief in Socialistic doctrines.

DEATH LIST GROWS IN ST. LOUIS FIRE

ST. LOUIS, March 10.—Eleven more corpses were in sight in the ruins of the Missouri Athletic Club this morning but the firemen were unable to remove them on account of the tottering walls. Between thirty and forty people are still missing and it is believed they all perished in the fire destroying the building Sunday night.

Three more unidentified corpses were removed from the ruins at noon, bringing the total number of bodies recovered to ten.

Meredith Johnson of Lexington, Ky., journalist and chess champion, reported among the dead, telephoned his newspaper that he is safe. One hitherto unidentified corpse has been identified as that of W. J. Kinser.

WORDS FROM HOME

Statements that May Be Investigated—Testimony of Santa Ana Citizens

When a Santa Ana citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements of people residing in far away places do not command your confidence. Home endorsement is the kind that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Such testimony is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Santa Ana resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

Mrs. Cynthia M. Madison, 901 E. Sixth St., Santa Ana, Cal., says: "About a year ago I was feeling very poorly in every way. My kidneys troubled me, showing signs of weakness. Doan's Kidney Pills helped me, and gave such satisfactory results that I have never hesitated to speak a good word for them. I keep a box of Doan's Kidney Pills in the house and whenever I feel out of sorts, I use them. I always find relief."

ANIMAL SPIRITS—NERVOUS IMPULSES

Despite the progress of science and the expansion and more precise definition of knowledge from generation to generation, we still adhere to modes of expression which had their origin in the cruder conceptions of earlier days. Few persons ever stop to consider, says The Journal of the American Medical Association, when they speak of "a man of spirit," that they are unwittingly employing the language of the days of Galen. Yet this is evidently the survival of the old doctrine of spirits. We may believe that Galen had a conception of the nerve-trunks as conductors of something—he called it spirits—to and from the brain and spinal cord. The natural spirits were that undefined property which gave to blood the capacity of nourishing the tissues of the body. The vital spirits were acquired in the heart; and when at last the blood with its vital spirits went to the brain and experienced a sort of refinement for the last time, the animal spirits were separated from it and carried to the body by the nerve-trunks.

Here, then, is the beginning of the modern idea of innervation; the animal spirits of Galen have become the nervous impulses of today. The ancient "spirits" in the nerves were converted into the succus nervus of later eras when the rising school of physicians began to center their interest in the properties of fluids which can conduct disturbances without themselves traveling. Subsequently it was the vis nervosa of Albrecht Haller that furnished the stimulus to the muscle. For a time this was identified with animal electricity. In the present day we express the same underlying conception by the term "nervous impulses." These are not electricity, but they produce it and can be manifested by it. Each generation must think and express itself in the language of its own time.

A CONSTRUCTIVE ADMINISTRATION

R. H. Young of Long Beach, former editor of the Northwestern Advocate, and a man widely known in religious journalism, pays the following tribute to Governor Johnson on the occasion of his visit to Long Beach:

"Listening to Governor Johnson speaking to a great audience, when the occasion is worth while, one would say, 'He is an orator.' He is, however, much more than that. When he entered upon his political canvass four years ago people generally began to be drawn to him by his platform ability. But if that talent had been his main asset his career would have been merely that of a swift meteor; and today instead of being the most abused, the best known and most trusted man in the state he would have been gradually and safely on the road to oblivion.

"The Johnson administration has merely sought a working basis of government in this state, under which the employer and the employed, the rich and the poor, alike will be protected, without expensive litigation, in their just rights under the law. Johnson has given nine-tenths of his working capacity, since his election and before, to a program of constructive legislation, pausing occasionally to address the people who gladly listen to him when they have opportunity."

JUST RIGHT FOR BACKACHE AND RHEUMATISM

—Foley Kidney Pills are so thoroughly effective for backache, rheumatism, swollen, aching joints, kidney and bladder ailments that they are recommended everywhere. A. A. Jeffords, McGrew, Neb., says: "For the last few months I was troubled with pains in my back and the druggist recommended Foley Kidney Pills for my ailment. I have not yet taken all of one bottle and my old trouble has entirely disappeared." Wingood's Drug Store.—Advertisement.

THIS NEW MEDICINE SAVES YOU MONEY

—We are druggists right here in your town and make a living out of the drug business, but it is because people have to have drugs and not because we like to see people suffer we don't. Our duty is to render the best service we can, and when someone is ailing, we are interested in seeing them take the best medicine there is for their particular trouble. We don't recommend "cure-alls," as we don't believe there are such things. We don't want you to spend more than you have to. Some of you get small wages, and when you're sick, none at all, and you should get the most you can for your money.

We recently came across a new remedy for increasing strength and building up people who are run-down and emaciated. We know that a slight trouble sometimes grows into a serious one, and to stop it in the beginning will save you money in the end. This new compound is called Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion. It is the best remedy when you are run down, tired out, nervous—no matter what the cause. It doesn't merely stimulate you and make you feel good for a few hours, but takes hold of the weakness and builds you up to a healthy, normal condition. It is a real nerve-food tonic and builder of good blood, strong muscle, good digestion. It contains Hypophosphites, which tone the nerves, and pure Olive Oil, which nourishes the nerves, the blood and the entire system. Pleasant to take. Contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. We promise that if you are not perfectly satisfied with it, we'll give back your money as soon as you tell us. Sold only at the 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us, $1.00. Mather's Drug Store, 106 West Fourth street, Santa Ana.

CIVICS CLUB MEETING

Talk on "Eugenics" by E. M. Nealley Aroused Interest—Discuss Everyday Problems

The principal features of the Civics Club meeting held Saturday at the city hall were an address by E. M. Nealley on "Eugenics," and the discussion of three problems of everyday importance, the "fly-swagger," campaign, the care of street parking, and exhortation on the sidewalks where men congregate.

Mr. Nealley illustrated his lecture on "Eugenics" with a set of charts. He gave a list of facts that forcibly demonstrated the need of improvement of the race by eugenics, or some other method. He stated that about ten per cent of the entire population is defective, delinquent or dependent. This statement alone should be sufficient to rouse the attention of thinking people to the necessity for action. The social evil, alcohol, poverty and suicides were some of the phases of social conditions strongly touched upon. That the women of the club appreciated Mr. Nealley's informing, straightforward talk, was shown by a rising vote of thanks.

It was stated that information regarding the general health conditions of the state can be secured by any one by addressing the secretary of the State Board of Health at Sacramento.

The April meeting of the Civics Club will be addressed by Judge W. H. Thomas.

EBELL MUSIC SECTION

Program of Interest Given by Representative Musicians at Yesterday's Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Music Section of the Ebells Club took place on yesterday afternoon and was held in the Congregational Church auditorium, which was a very appropriate place in view of the fact that the subject of the afternoon was "The Development of Church Music." A fairly representative number of the members were present and the session proved one of much real interest and pleasure. Mrs. Fred C. Rowland was in charge of the program and was most happily successful in her choice of entertainers and their various selections.

Mrs. Harry Hanson read a splendid paper on the subject of the afternoon, going back some two hundred years before the Christian era and bringing the history of the development of organ and church music down to the present time in a very attractive and instructive way.

The musical part of the program was of a very high order. It would be a hard matter to offer criticism as to which was best. They were all good. Mr. Revill's organ work and also that of Mr. Garstang, although their styles are somewhat different, were most thoroughly enjoyed. All the singers seemed to be in good voice and their work most acceptably done. The duet from Rossini's "Stabat Mater," sung by Miss Irene Balem and Mrs. Ella L. Fyfe, was one of the especially beautiful numbers in the program and the finale of this number (the organ) was fine.

Mr. Phillips also sang very well his number from the "Elijah." But then, Mr. Phillips always sings well. The entire program, in the order in which it was given follows:

Organ number, Fugue in E flat (Bach). Mr. Alan A. Revill; duet from "Stabat Mater" "Quies Homo" (Rasini). Miss Irene Balem and Mrs. Ella L. Fyfe; paper of the afternoon, "The Development of Church Music." Mrs. Harry Hanson; baritone solo, "It is Enough," from "Elijah" (Mendelssohn). Mr. Maurice Phillips; organ number, "Finale, Passion Music" (Bach). Mr. Harry Garstang; contralto and soprano solos from "The Messiah," "He Shall Feed His Flock." Mrs. Carl Strock, and "Come Unto Him," Mrs. Charles Johnson; tenor recitative and aria from "The Creation," "In Native Worth" (Haydn). Mr. W. A. Benjamin; trombone solos: "Ave Maria" (Bach-Gounod) and "The Palm" (Faure). Mr. Harry Hanson; organ number, "Cradle Song" (Alfred Hollis). Mr. Revill. This last number is a recent composition by an English composer, daintily beautiful and was played with much delicacy of touch and expressiveness.

Spiritualists Held Social

The First Spiritualist Society held a social entertainment in K. P. hall Saturday evening, which was well attended, it being the largest gathering at any of these socials held this year. The program consisted of music and dancing, which was followed by refreshments of ice cream and cake.

The society has had a substantial growth and has a bright outlook for the future. President L. A. Sweet spoke in favor of "California Dry in 1914," which was approved by all. At a late hour the social broke up and all went home with the conviction that they had had a first-class time.

Farewell Party

A farewell party was given last evening at the home of Mrs. M. E. Wright, 1002 East Pine street, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Baker, daughter and son, who are going to Highgrove to make their future home. Their going is regretted by a host of friends.

Those present last evening were: Mrs. M. E. Wright, Harry Wright, Gilbert Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Baker, daughter Harriet and son, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perry, Lillian Serbeck, Mrs. Helt and two sons, Herman and Hayden; Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Frank Thomson and two daughters, Luella and Elva, and son Frank; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dunigan and two daughters, Ramona and Lola Mary.

Auction Bridge Evening

Mr. and Mrs. Russell M. Scott were host and hostess at a very delightful evening of auction bridge last night at their home on Spurgeon street. Those who were guests have been thrown together in so many pleasant small parties that they have formed a most congenial company. Wild mustard in vases and baskets were used to make the attractive home still more charming, and after the progressive card games were concluded, tempting refreshments were served on the small tables. Japanese baskets were given to the ladies who won first and consolation scores, these being Mrs. E. S. Morrow and Mrs. C. M. Jordan respectively. Mr. Morrow held high score for the men and was awarded an ash tray, the consolation prize of a jumping-jack going to Fred Parsons.

Those in the party besides Mr. and Mrs. Scott were Messrs. and Mesdames C. M. Jordan, Robert R. Shafer, G. S. Briggs, E. S. Morrow, H. T. Duckett, Fred Parsons, Dr. Roscoe Whitted.

AMUSEMENTS

The Melting Pot

Everyone likes to hear a good girl's glee club. The Santa Ana High School girls are singing unusually well this year. They have been secured as a curtain raiser for the dramatic recital by Professor Clark at the Grand Opera House, Tuesday evening, March 10. On this occasion, Professor Clark will read the "Melting Pot." Mr. Clark possesses a voice of remarkable range and power, which, together with his grasp of the subtlest phases of the psychology of the characters, enables him to present a drama almost as convincingly as could a whole company of actors. Each character in the play stands out distinct and living to a degree that would seem almost impossible for one reader to accomplish. The reading is more than a brilliant piece of elocution, however; it is a scholarly and vitalizing study of a great literary work.

Helen Keller

"Do I take interest in my clothes?" asked Helen Keller the other day. "I most certainly do. Every girl does. Eve did, didn't she, and why shouldn't we of this day who have so many shades and fabrics from which to make our choice?"

Helen always selects her own clothes," advised Mrs. Macy, Miss Keller's teacher. "She takes the liveliest interest in everything to wear, and her instincts in color schemes never fails. She declares that she finds the colors she desires in the sky and flowers about her, and chooses those that she knows will harmonize with what she is doing and saying."

Miss Keller will be at the Grand Opera House Friday evening.

The Princess

The program proved to be very pleasing and entertaining to a large audience last night. The two-reel feature, "Conscience," is one of these subjects which holds the attention of the audience from beginning to end, and it ends in just the right way.

"The Janitor," a Reliance Drama of New York life, is full of interest. Another splendid comedy, "Double Crossed," caused a continuous round of merriment. The same pictures will be shown Tuesday afternoon and evening.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Keep Her Locks Dark, Glossy, Thick

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Weyl's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Weyl's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.—Advertisement.

AT THE COURTHOUSE

HOMESTEAD IS NOT EFFECTIVE IN THIS CASE

Loan Was Authorized Before Woman Got Any Rights in the Land

Question: "Does the filing of a declaration of homestead by the wife on property secured by a mortgage, made, executed and delivered to the mortgagee by the mortgagor previous to his marriage to said wife, affect any of the rights of the mortgagee therein?"

Answer: "From a consideration of the authorities the Court at the very outset is forced to arrive at a conclusion which must answer the foregoing question in the negative."

The question was put to Judge Thomas in the foreclosure action of the German American Bank of Anaheim against Harrison Kuebler and his wife, Oswega Kuebler.

Before Kuebler married he gave a mortgage on his ranch at Anaheim to the bank to secure a loan of $1000 and any additional loans that might be made to him by the bank. Kuebler borrowed another $1000 after his marriage. Then came a family row that had a bitter battle in court as an aftermath. Mrs. Kuebler slapped a homestead on the place. After that Kuebler borrowed another $1000 from the bank, making $3000 in all.

When the bank sued to foreclose, Mrs. Kuebler put in an answer alleging that her homestead lien was such that the bank could not hold the property for the last $1000 loaned Kuebler. Attorney Leonard Evans of Anaheim represented the bank and Attorneys Weisel & Dutton the defendants.

Judge Thomas in his opinion states that antecedent rights in property cannot be cut off by a declaration of homestead, that an outstanding equity subject to a husband's title is not destroyed by a declaration of homestead by the wife, at least where she has knowledge of the equity, as was the case in the Kuebler matter.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

PAID FOR GASOLINE WITH BOGUS CHECK

A warrant was issued today for the arrest of C. N. Gary on a charge of giving G. H. Marshall of San Juan Capistrano a bogus check for $3.40. Gary got into trouble in San Diego, where he lived. He went through this county by auto, and stopped at the mission town garage for repairs and gasoline. Marshall accepted a check on the U. S. National Bank of San Diego.

She Wouldn't Answer
Helen Butler, aged 14, had the justice court stamped this morning. She was the principal witness against her step-father, Herbert Dyer, charged with felonious mistreatment of the girl. When Attorneys Weisel & Dutton began cross-examining her she balked. She refused to answer their questions. Justice Cox instructed her to answer. She refused. The attorneys suggested that she be fined for contempt. It developed she had no money. The attorneys suggested that she be sent to jail for contempt. "She is already held at the Detention Home, and that is the only confinement we can impose upon her at her age," said Cox.

The hearing resulted in holding Dyer to answer on a bond of $5000.

CITY CURBS TO BLAZE WITH CRIMSON RIOT OF GERANIUMS

That Santa Ana is not to be left in the shade in comparison with other California cities during exposition year is the intention of the various booster bodies who have the best interests of the city at heart. The Chamber of Commerce, the City Park Commission and the Civics Club realize that 1915 will offer unparalleled opportunities for advertising and exploiting the resources and general attractiveness of Santa Ana and Orange County. In order to take the most complete advantage of the location of Santa Ana, "Between the Two Exposition Cities," local civic organizations realize that nothing must be left undone to make Santa Ana even more of a "City Beautiful." In accordance with this realization steps were taken last night whereby a tremendous beautifying project was definitely set in motion. A special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was called to meet with the Park Commission in order to consider ways and means toward planting flowers along the parkings of the city's curbs.

Chamber of Commerce Meets With Park Commission
All members of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce were present. The Park Commission was represented by Mrs. P. R. Reynolds, chairman; Mrs. A. J. Padgham, secretary, and Mrs. J. H. Rankin. The Civics Club was also represented by the commission. The question of using roses was first taken up. Roses, it was decided, were not practical for distribution is to be furnished by the ladies of the Park Commission as well as by members of the Civics Club. A committee to oversee this work was appointed and consists of the following: H. T. Rutherford, chairman; George W. Menter, Fred Raftery, George S. Smith and George B. Shattuck.

Especially attention is to be given to beautifying the principal streets. The geraniums are to be planted practically the entire length of Main street, at least as far south as the present pavement. West Fifth street, East Fourth street, First and Chestnut streets are other thoroughfares that will be improved in this manner.

Boost Sign on South Wall of Walnut Growers' House
In order to show his interest and belief in boosting, Mr. A. C. Tiede, secretary of the Walnut Growers' Association, when asked, several days ago, to confer with the growers in regard to having a Chamber of Commerce booster sign on the south wall of the association's packing house, said that he would personally attend to the matter of having the sign put up. The sign is to be similar to the one just painted on the east wall of the Santa Ana Commercial Company's plant. The two signs will "get" the tourists "going and coming," as the Santa Fe Pullman cars stop directly opposite both signs.

NO MORE SMOKING IN EXECUTIVE SESSIONS OF SENATE

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Senator Benjamin R. Tillman of South Carolina broke into the debate on Mexico yesterday long enough to secure the adoption of a resolution to amend the rules so as to prevent smoking in the executive sessions of the Senate.

The senator made a brief speech, at times humorous and at others pathetic, in support of his resolution, in which he advised senators to look after their health, and in the course of which he recalled that in the four years since he was paralyzed and has been struggling to restore himself to health twenty-one senators and Vice President Sherman had passed away. The senator reminded his colleagues that he had read his own obituary in the newspapers, a privilege not enjoyed by many men.

Senator Tillman's resolution was passed viva voce and there was not a voice raised in opposition.

ADVISABILITY OF DRY PLANK IS DISCUSSED

Local Progressive Club Divided on Making it Party
Measure

Among questions discussed earnestly at the monthly meeting of the Santa Ana Progressive Club last night was the advisability of putting a dry plank in the Progressive platform.

The question was brought up by F. F. Rexford, who was elected a vice-president of the club from the third ward. Rexford stated that he believed that the plank was in accordance with Progressive principles for the betterment of mankind, and should be adopted as a party fight. A number of those present discussed the matter, some taking Rexford's view of the matter, and some opposing the idea. Some of those who thought the action not advisable stated that personally they were opposed to saloons and would vote dry in California, but they were of the opinion that the dry question was not a party matter.

Another matter discussed informally was that of the Progressive registration in the state. S. J. Jackman and Mr. Sweet were leaders in this discussion. Jackman said that considering the fact that it is a new party, the Progressive registration has been excellent. He said that he thought one reason many Progressives had not registered with the party was that they did not understand the situation. Sweet said that there is no need to worry about the registration. He felt confident that when it comes to election day thousands of those registered as Republicans will vote for Governor Johnson.

W. C. Jerome resigned as vice-president of the club. His letter of resignation stated that he is a candidate for county auditor, and since county officers are made non-partisan he believed he should take no active party stand. He believes that the non-partisan law is an excellent one, and in order to obey the spirit of the law he wished to retire from the position of an officer of the club. F. F. Rexford was elected in his place.

LIEUTENANT BECKER, PHOTOGRAPHED AT SING SING
AFTER LEARNING HE WAS TO HAVE A NEW TRIAL

Just as soon as Lieutenant Charles Becker, held in Sing Sing for fifteen months under sentence of death for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the New York gambler, learned that the Court of Appeals, the highest court in New York state, had granted him a new trial, he was ready to talk. Newspaper men who went to see him met him in the office of the warden, and there he again proclaimed his innocence. He insisted that Harry Vallon, one of the gamblers who turned state's evidence, was the real murderer of Rosenthal, and he said he would make it his business to hunt the evidence for conviction. But Becker is to be tried again for the murder. District Attorney Whitman had begun preparations, and it was said that within six weeks the trial will be under way. Even should he fail to get a conviction for murder he will bring charges of extortion against the policeman. Becker was found to have banked more than $80,000 in the short time he was at the head of the vice squad in New York city. This money, the district attorney believes, came from graft on poolrooms and illegal resorts.

After Dinner Chats With Apricot Growers

By Dr. J. G. Berneike, Corresponding Secretary of the Orange County Dried Fruit Association.

Last year our apricot trees burst into bloom, while this year they are struggling into bloom. This difference in the manner of blossoming might prove to be indicative of the difference in the drying campaign. Last year the fruit ripened during a short period, and for those who had a good crop it proved to be a grand rush requiring about fifty per cent more trays than in other years with the same crop. The drying campaign consequently lasted only three to four weeks instead of five to six weeks.

The trees have begun blossoming earlier this year, and it is likely that we shall begin drying a week or two earlier than last year, which will give the boys a chance to earn a little Fourth of July money.

Some growers are not well pleased with the promise of a crop in sight now. Of course, none of us can tell as yet what the crop will be. But as I pass by a good many apricot orchards between Tustin, Santa Ana and Orange, I have a very decided impression that this year will not show up with a bumper crop for Orange county. Our last big crop came in 1908, and we might say there is a bumper crop due us by this time. But if I judge correctly we need not look for it this year. A grower of long years experience tells me that a year of plentiful rains has never turned out a good crop year for apricots and grapes. If the season, however, continues favorably, we may yet get a fair harvest. And if this is combined with a fair price, it will be a greater blessing than a bumper crop would be with the low price which generally goes with it. I do not look for a bumper crop for the state. It is true the whole state had splendid rains, and it will be easy to jump to the conclusion that therefore we must come in for a good crop. But this is not confirmed by the experience of growers. Moreover, there are growers in Santa Clara county, which is the largest producer of dried apricots, who believe that their trees had suffered too severely from the long continued drought to be able to recover sufficiently to yield a good crop, though favored by abundant and seasonable rains.

I had never seen a better promise of a bumper crop than in March of last year, and yet the result was a disappointment for the majority of growers. I hope to see a better crop for those who fared so badly last year. There is a good deal of difference observable in the earliness with which different orchards start in to bloom. There are some orchards around Tustin and a few lying between Santa Clara avenue and Fairhaven avenue, well advanced, while other orchards within a stone's throw show hardly a blossom. On February 22, George Washington's birthday, in my orchard of Royal apricots, there was one tree nearly in full bloom, with others close by less advanced. While the bees were humming over the blossoms, sipping the sweet nectar and filling their leg pockets to make bee bread for their young, I was reminded of our friends in the East who were shivering with the cold on this day. This same tree at this date has fruit the size of a pea, and is leaving out vigorously. Speaking of the bees reminds me of the great help they are to the fruit grower. With a few hives in your orchard or near by, the bees will often work between showers and fertilize the blossoms by carrying the pollen from one to the other. If they are obliged to come a long distance on rainy days, the grower may lose heavily.

What will be the price of dried apricots in 1914? This question interests the grower exceedingly. I do not claim to know at this time how high the price will go. But I will say this: Even if the crop should turn out to be a large one, the opening price will not be below eight cents per pound. Now, please to quote me correctly. I do not say it will be eight cents per pound, for if the crop is short it may be 10 cents or 12 cents or more, but I do say: "The opening price will not be less than eight cents per pound."

If this assertion seems to you bold and premature, listen to my reasons for making this early price forecast. All fruit crops were short last year, and probably every pound will have gone into consumption before the new crop comes. The market will be entirely cleaned up in all lines of fruit. We have not had such a condition for a number of years. Therefore with no left-over stocks to depress the price of the new crop, we may reasonably expect the price of dried apricots to start not below

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

200 FEET OF CONCRETE TO BE REPLACED

Commissioners Went Over
Huntington Beach Road and Saw Bridge

About 200 feet of concrete base on the Santa Ana-Huntington Beach road is to be replaced. This decision was reached yesterday by County Highway Commissioners Pixley, Finley and McFadden on their trip of inspection over the two sections of the Santa Ana-Huntington beach good road. The defective piece lies on the road opposite the Huntington Beach cemetery.

Just why this bit of base failed to hold up has not been discovered. Defective material may have been the cause. The thickness is according to specifications. Whatever the cause, it is up to the contractor to replace it, and that work is to be done before the road is accepted. The commissioners also directed some minor reshaping of the sides of the road.

The commissioners looked over the concrete bridge that the Los Angeles Bridge & Construction Co. is building under contract with the county. This bridge is on the Talbert road across the Santa Ana river just south of the P. E. bridge. The recent storm waters interfered with the progress on this bridge considerably. It will be three or four months before it is completed. However, it will be finished before the sugar beet hauling starts.

SUGAR BEET PRODUCTION ABLY DISCUSSED BY EXPERTS OF DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 9.—Methods of culture for the sugar beet in the Central, Western and Southwestern portions of the United States are dealt with in the Department of Agriculture's new bulletin, "Sugar Beet Growing Under Irrigation." This is the second bulletin of interest to sugar beet growers which has been issued recently. The other was entitled: "Sugar Beet Growing Under Humid Conditions," and was of interest more particularly to the northern portion of our country, where most of the present sugar beet crop is grown.

While there is a feeling of safety in having an unlimited supply of water for irrigation purposes, it must always be remembered that irrigation costs money and labor, says the government's investigator. Such precipitation of moisture, then, as there is in a locality should not be permitted to escape from the soil with the idea that more water can always be applied when needed. All moisture that falls upon the ground and is received and retained by the soil acts upon the plant foods day after day and accomplishes most for plant growth. Precipitation is nature's gift, and should never be despised. The ground in irrigated sections where the sugar beet plant is grown should be plowed to a good depth in the fall and every effort made to retain the moisture in the soil from the time the previous crop is harvested until the beet crop is laid by.

Much depends upon the condition of the soil as to whether or not it is able to receive and retain the moisture. A large number of showers may show several inches of rainfall in the aggregate, and yet they may have accomplished little, if any, good so far as crop production is concerned, because they failed to moisten the ground to a sufficient depth. On the other hand, one or more heavy, dashing rains may show a satisfactory total rainfall for the season and at the same time be entirely unsatisfactory from the standpoint of crop production. Indeed, such rains may be more injurious than beneficial, because of packing and crusting the ground. A record of the total rainfall for a season, or even month by month, is of little value unless we know the nature and amount of each precipitation. The point of most vital importance is to have the ground in condition to receive as much as possible of the moisture that falls upon it and then to make every effort to retain that moisture in the soil.

Other points to be considered by growers of sugar beets under irrigation are the following:

Sugar beet soil should be selected with reference to its fertility, its physical condition, its previous cropping, and its ability to be properly drained and irrigated.

The seed and root beds should be so prepared that they will be fine, firm, moist and well aerated, with a sufficiently lumpy mulch on the surface to prevent blowing.

Beet ground should never be flooded after the seed is planted.

The soil should be well supplied with humus.

Beet seed should be planted in moist soil, but not more than one and a half inches deep.

Beets should be spaced and thinned as soon as they are large enough to handle.

Beets should be cultivated and hoed often enough to destroy all weeds and to keep the entire surface of the ground covered with a mulch.

Beets should always be rotated with other crops in order to keep the soil in good tilth and free from pests.

Live stock, especially dairy cows, should always be found on beet farms.

The by-products of the sugar beet and of the sugar mill are worthy of careful attention. These are described in detail in both the newly issued bulletins on the sugar beet.

Temperature and Winds Must Be Considered

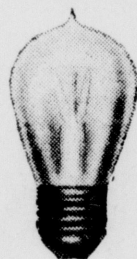

Besides the precipitation, two important climatic factors to be considered are the temperature and winds. Both high and low temperatures have a direct bearing upon the growth or quality of the beets. A study of the most successful sugar beet localities of the world leads to the conclusion that sugar beets of the best quality can not be grown where the average temperature for the growing season is much above 70 degrees Fahrenheit. This does not mean that sugar beets can not be successfully grown in warm countries or in warm sections of a country, but it does mean that in such localities beets should be produced during the cooler portions of the year, which is now done successfully in certain portions of our own country. It is possible that beets adapted to higher temperatures may be produced by selection and breeding, and in this way the present large sugar beet territory in the United States may be greatly increased.

Low temperatures are most likely to be injurious to sugar beets when the plantlets are just breaking through the ground. At this period the young plants are very tender and susceptible to injury by frost, but after the roots are established in the soil they rapidly become hardy and resistant to frost to a marked degree. Since the time of killing frosts varies from year to year in the same territory it is not always possible to avoid injury from this

WOMEN CAN HARDLY BELIEVE

How Mrs. Hurley Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Eldon, Mo.—"I was troubled with displacement, inflammation and female weakness. For two years I could not stand on my feet long at a time and I could not walk two blocks without enduring cutting and drawing pains down my right side which increased every month. I have been at that time purple in the face and would walk the floor. I could not lie down or sit still sometimes for a day and a night at a time. I was nervous, and had very little appetite, no ambition, melancholy, and often felt as though I had a friend in the world. After I had tried most every female remedy without success, my mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and gained in strength every day. I have now no trouble in any way and highly praise your medicine. It advertises itself."—Mrs. S. T. HURLEY, Eldon, Missouri.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale everywhere.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means have failed. Why don't you try it? Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

cause. A killing frost when the beets are coming up does not destroy the chance for a successful beet crop, but it often necessitates the expense and labor of replanting. It is therefore wise to delay the planting until the ground is warm and the growing conditions are otherwise favorable, since such conditions will rapidly push the beets beyond the period of frost injury. When the beets are mature they will stand a severe freeze without injury. The great danger from low temperature at the end of the growing season is that the beets may be frozen in the ground, making the harvesting of the crop difficult or even impossible. To avoid this danger and the consequent loss that might result from such a condition it is advisable to get the beets out of the ground as soon as possible after they are ripe and to cover them to avoid freezing or drying. Apparently beet roots are not injured for sugar-making purposes by freezing, provided that they freeze and remain frozen until they are put through the mill, but alternate freezing and thawing cause them to decay and blacken, so their value for sugar making is materially decreased.

Winds are briefly mentioned in connection with soil selection for sugar beets, but they have a still wider bearing upon crop conditions. Not only do high winds have a tendency to destroy young beets and other plants by cutting and burying them with shifting sands, but they have a marked influence upon the amount of evaporation from the soil. For this reason a given amount of moisture in a locality where hot, dry winds prevail during the spring is much less effective in crop production than would be the same amount of moisture in a locality where such winds do not prevail, other conditions being the same.

However, the injurious effects of winds may be overcome to a great extent by the use of proper cultural methods. For example, both the blowing of the soil and the excessive evaporation may often be reduced to the point of successful crop production by keeping the surface of the ground covered with a lump mulch. The mulch retards the evaporation, while its lumpy condition reduces the shifting of the soil. The cutting action of the shifting sand may be controlled by planting the beet rows at right angles to the direction of the prevailing winds when practicable and by attaching irrigation shovels to the drills, so that ridges capable of protecting the young plants will be thrown up between the rows at planting time. It is true that the slope of the land and the consequent direction of irrigation must also be considered in planting the beets, but wherever practicable the rows should be at right angles to the direction of the prevailing winds.

"Faultless" Houdans

This strain has been egg-bred from trapnest records since April, 1890. I have bred them 21 years for great layers and 12 years for large size chalk white eggs; these fowls are extremely hardy, have neither comb nor wattle to freeze, and are the best of all winter layers in open front coops. Faultless strain Houdans have won every blue ribbon at New York, Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia shows for past six years; eggs and stock sold on honor; send 10c for the largest illustrated poultry catalogue ever issued; it tells you how to breed these fowls, which average 250 eggs a year apiece; it tells you how to net $3,000 a year from 100 hens. E. F. MacAVOY, Secretary Houdan Club, Cambridge, N. Y.
